

Department of Political Science, National Chung Cheng University

Requirements for student study (for students entering in the 111th academic year)

1. Students of our department have to take at least 129 credits, including (1) General education for 28 credits (2) Compulsory subjects for 63 credits (3) Elective subjects (for a major is 18 credits; for a major and a minor is 28 credits) (4) Free electives (for a major is 20 credits; for a major and a minor is 10 credits)
2. Subjects include:	1 st grade		2 nd grade		3 rd grade		4 th grade
(1) General education for total 28	Fall semester	Spring semester	Fall semester	Spring semester	Fall semester	Spring semester	Fall semester	Spring semester
Proficiency courses in Chinese and English:
General Chinese (Compulsory subjects for 4 credits)	2	2	2 nd
General English (Compulsory subjects for 4 credits)	2	2
Other: Choose at least one course in the " Information Competency Course " and one course in Liberal Arts dimensions 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6. The remaining credits can be selected to take information competency courses, basic introduction courses, or courses of any dimension in liberal arts.	★ Please refer to the "National Chung Cheng University Students' General Education Regulations. " ★ Courses not taken in the "Basic Introduction Courses" and "List of General Studies Courses Not Taken by Department" offered by the our department will not be counted as credits for general education courses. ★ Please refer to the "National Chung Cheng University Students' Study in the field of Physical Education. "
© "Social Service Learning Course" (compulsory 0 credits)
(2) Compulsory subjects for 63 credits
Introduction to Political Science (I · II)	3	3
ROC Government and Constitution	3
Political Science Classics (I · II)	2	2
Sociology (I · II)	2	2
Economics (I · II)	2	2
History of Western Political Philosophy	3
History of Chinese Political Thought		3
Introduction to Jurisprudence		3
Term Papers Writing		3
Introduction to Political Methodology (I · II)			3	3

Comparative Governments and Politics (I · II)			3	3
International Relations (I · II)			3	3
Public Administration (I · II)			3	3
Statistical Methods for Political Research (I · II)					3	3

(3) 18 credits of electives

Comparative Politics	International Relationship	Public Policy and Administration	Civil Society
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Political Economy ● Parties and Election ● Rational choice theory ● Readings of classics in political science studies ● Chinese Government and Politics (I、II) ● Political Theories of Justice ● Democratic Theory ● U.S. Government and Politics ● Public Opinion and Survey Research ● Empirical Political Theory ● Contemporary Chinese Society ● Political Ideologies ● The Political and Economic Development of Taiwan ● Political Sociology ● Contemporary Western Political Thought ● Basic Concepts of Civil Society ● Seminar on Globalization ● Political Socialization ● Democracy Watch ● Seminar: Social Democracy and Welfare State ● Asian Regionalism ● China's Belt and Road Initiative ● Seminar on Political Science ● Jürgen Habermas on Modern State ● Political Thought of Liberalism ● Political Psychology ● Introduction to Political Thought of Kant and Hegel 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Political Economy ● Diplomatic History of China ● Modern History of International Politics ● Rights of Men and Rights of Women ● International Bargain and Negotiation ● International Migrations ● Seminar on Globalization ● Public International Law (I、II) ● European integration and political thought ● US-China Relations ● The Taiwan-China Relations ● International Political Economy ● International Organizations & Non-Governmental Organizations ● Global Environmental Governance: The Major Environmental Issues over the Past Decade ● International Ethics ● Chinese Government and Politics (I、II) ● Southeast Asia and China ● Asian Regionalism ● China's Belt and Road Initiative ● Cross-Strait Political Economy analysis 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Public Policy ● Public Management ● Policy analysis ● Introduction to Public Personnel Management ● Crisis Management ● Financial Administration ● Policy Implementation and Evaluation ● Organizational Theory and Behavior ● Environmental Politics ● Case Studies in Public Policy ● Public Human Resource Management ● Electronic Government and Digital Governance ● Ethical Issues in Public Sector ● Contemporary Sociological Analysis ● Administrative Law(I、II) ● The Classics of Public Governance and Society ● Development and Practice of Social Enterprises ● Public Administration Theory ● Seminar on Public Policy 	※Group compulsory (2courses) : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Political Socialization (3 credits) ● Basic Concepts of Civil Society (3 credits) ● Political Theories of Justice ● Parties and Election ● Picture Books, Novels, and Multicultural Education ● Rights of Men and Rights of Women ● Does love have borders? Foreign spouse and justice ● Unions and Organizations ● Read politics in children's world ● Aging society ● Welfare for the disables ● Citizens, Government, and Animals: Street Dogs in Taiwan ● Baseball: A Political Analysis ● Industrial Pollution?Movie Based Case Studies ● Civil Disobedience ● Judicial politics ● Political communication ● Democracy Watch ● Development and Practice of Social Enterprises ● Political Ideologies ● The Political and Economic Development of Taiwan ● Seminar: Social Democracy and Welfare State ● Political Sociology ● Seminar on Political Science ● Art, Time and State ● Jürgen Habermas on Modern State ● Civic Education ● Political Thought of Liberalism ● Political Psychology

Note :

1. Among the major elective courses offered by each group in each grade, 18 credits of compulsory courses need to be selected.
2. Students select a group for major need to take 18 credits of major electives, of which up to 4 credits can be selected for other groups; Students select a group for major and a group for minor need to take 28 credits of major electives , or you can change to 14 or more for major, 8 or more for minor, plus a maximum of 6 credits for each group.
3. The compulsory courses of our department and the elective courses of the major and auxiliary majors, except for the courses supported by other departments or not offered by our department, are limited to take the courses offered by our department.
4. The compulsory courses for 2nd grade of "Comparative Government and Politics", "International Relations" and "Public Administration" are open to 1st grade.
5. Elective courses that include 2 semesters, and students who want to be listed as major elective credits, must take and pass the courses in the first and next semesters.
6. (1) "Administrative Law" offered by the Department of Law can be used to offset "Administrative Law (I · II)" for Public Policy and Administration group of our department.
(2) "Public International Law (I · II) " offered by the Department of Financial and Economic Law can be used to offset " Public International Law (I · II) " for International Relation group of our department.
(3)The major elective of Civil Society group can take " Political Communication " offered by the Department of Communication
7. Those who choose the Civil Society Group as a major elective, the 18 credits of major elective courses must include two compulsory courses "political socialization" and "basic concepts of civil society" in order to be recognized as a major elective.
8. Courses with the same name in a master's class may be recognized as graduation credits for bachelor's classes, but courses of the same name in the master's program shall not be counted as graduation credits for master's classes in the future.
9. If the undergraduate major elective of the department has not set up the course for three years, students can apply to our office during the second stage of each semester (add and drop period), and after the course committee has reviewed and approved, they can go to other departments or for another schools to take courses.
10. Free elective is 20 credits for one major or 10 credits for one major and one minor.
 - (1) The free elective credits can choose the elective courses offered by the department (including cross-group major elective courses), as well as courses of other departments.
 - (2) The credits of military training (nursing) courses can be included in the calculation of free elective and graduation points.
 - (3) Select courses offered by other departments with the same name as the compulsory and elective courses of the department can't be included in the calculation of free elective and graduation credits.
 - (4) Extra-taken general education courses can't be counted to free elective and graduation credits. Students who waive credits for educational courses or extra-taken educational courses can't be included in the calculation of free elective and graduation credits.
 - (5) Advanced (intermediate and advanced) courses and basic Japanese language courses (inclusive) courses in the Center for Language Studies Language Center can be included in the free electives of our departments.

(6) The credits of elective physical education courses for students of our department can be included in the free elective and graduation credits, limited to one credit in each semester.

★ Students of this department are required to complete the Social Service Learning Course (compulsory 0 credits) in accordance with "National Chung Cheng University Students' Study Regulations. ", and it is recommended to complete the study before the end of their third year, and should have at least 16 hours of practical service and participate in at least two service learning lecture series.